

Adult Growth Opportunities

Begin each Sunday morning with an adult growth experience! The fall 9:30-10:15 education time has the following class and workshop choices:

Following God's People to the Promised Land

With video and discussion, participants will follow Ray Vander Laan as he explores the geography and history underlying the book of Exodus. Eileen Rosenwinkel and Carol Rudie, experienced small group leaders, will team up to lead the discussions.

September 19 through November 21

Location: Chapel

Aging with Care: a guide to caregiving for older loved ones

Join Joy Vliem to discuss realities and options of caregiving for older adults, using Focus on the Families' book, A Complete Guide to Caring for Aging Loved Ones. Drawing upon her work at the Metropolitan Area Agency on Aging, Joy will include helpful tools and perspectives for caregivers, along with practical information for accessing programs, resources, and support.

September 19 through November 21

Location: Room 311

Headliners

A variety of topics relating to Christian living will be the focus of this class. Each week's discussion will center on an article from The Banner. Led by Dean Rudie, the first three weeks will cover the following topics:

Sept. 19: The Case for Christian Education. Are Christian schools merely a quaint historical oddity or an endeavor integrally connected to our faith?

Sept. 26: Lavish Frugality: The Secret to an Abundant Life

Oct. 3: Always Reforming Opposition to change can mean opposition to God.

September 19 through November

21 Location: Room 313

Celebrate Christmas!

A special Christmas series will be offered during the education hour in the Chapel on the first two Sundays in December.

Sing and Celebrate!

December 6

Sing the beloved carols and learn something of the stories that inspired them.

Traditions New and Old

December 12

How does one choose personal and family Christmas traditions?

Share your own practices and learn new possibilities.

